Subject to traffic conditions and timing you may see O'Connell Street and the General Post Office, the location where the Proclamation was read for the first time on Easter Sunday 1916. You will see the Garden of Remembrance, The Custom House and get a feel for this great city. You will check into your centrally located hotel. The rest of the day is free for you to rest and relax and enjoy Dublin's Fair City.

2 nights at The Shelbourne Hotel in a Double Deluxe Room inclusive of breakfast

Day 2: Round Trip Transfer to Portmarnock Golf Club

Today we include round trip transfers from your hotel to today's golf course. After your included round of golf, your driver will collect you and transfer you back to your city centre hotel.

Golf at Portmarnock Golf Club. Within a picturesque curve of coastline, Portmarnock Golf Club sits majestically on a narrow tongue of shallow duneland and as a measure of its enduring quality, it remains one of the most respected venues in world golf. 10 miles to the north of Dublin City and only a 15-minute drive from Dublin Airport.

Day 3: Dublin to Kinsale via The Rock of Cashel

Check out of your hotel this morning and meet your driver/guide in the hotel lobby. Depart Dublin in a luxury vehicle and travel south with an included stop at The Rock of Cashel. Continue to Kinsale where we include an afternoon round of golf at The Old Head of Kinsale. In the early evening, check into your accommodation for the night.

The Rock of Cashel is the site where St Patrick chose to make the head of his church in Ireland. The Rock of Cashel is a spectacular group of medieval buildings set on an outcrop of limestone in the Golden Vale including the 12th century round tower, High Cross and Romanesque Chapel, 13th century Gothic cathedral, 15th century Castle and the restored Hall of the Vicars Choral.

Golf at Old Head of Kinsale. The Old Head Golf Links is built on a 220-acre diamond of land jutting out over two miles into the Atlantic Ocean. The promontory is almost an island with numerous caves running beneath your feet as you play the course. The links and practice area occupy 180 acres and the remaining 40 acres of unspoilt cliff frame the course. It is a piece of golf real estate like no other, that causes many a golfer and visitor to pinch themselves as they drive through the ancient gateway with the crashing waves of the Atlantic Ocean some 300 feet below.

Overnight at Perryville House in a Double Deluxe Room inclusive of breakfast

Day 4: Cork to Killarney: A Full Day with your Expert Driver / Guide

After breakfast you will meet with your driver/guide and depart Kinsale. Travel via Cork City and on to Blarney Castle for an included visit and a chance to 'kiss the Blarney Stone'. The evening is free to enjoy Ireland's most famous tourist town and the great pubs and restaurants.

Blarney Castle Built nearly six hundred years ago by one of Ireland's greatest chieftains, Cormac MacCarthy. Over the last few hundred years, millions have flocked to Blarney making it a world-famous landmark and one of Ireland's greatest treasures. Now, that might have something to do with the Blarney Stone, the legendary Stone of Eloquence, found at the top of our tower. Kiss it and you'll never again be lost for words.

The Killeen Course at Killarney Golf & Fishing Club. The Killeen course is one of two 18-hole championship courses along with a 9-hole course on offer at this club. Each course is immaculately presented, planned and designed.

Please discuss this with your driver/guide who will be happy to arrange and provide round-trip transfers.

Waterville Golf Links is rated among the top links in Britain and Ireland, this is the brainchild of Irish-American businessman John A. Mulcahy and Eddie Hackett who saw the potential for creating a golfing gem here in the late 1960's. No two holes are alike and Waterville has truly won its place among the necklace of great links of the west coast of Ireland.
