Your Itinerary in Detail

Day 1: Welcome to Dublin, Céad Míle Fáilte.

The moment you touch down at Dublin airport, your driver-guide and luxury vehicle are waiting to welcome you. Everything is set for an adventure on a grand scale. It's all organised, and you'll be accompanied at every stage. The airport is just a short drive from the city. It's opportune to enjoy a short orientation tour as you head to your hotel. Your driver-guide will point out many key sites (dependent on traffic). You might spot O'Connell Street and the General Post Office, for example.

Maybe the Garden of Remembrance, Custom House. And tomorrow, you've got an entire day to see more of Dublin; it's history and culture.

You'll spend your first two nights at one of our selected 5-star Dublin hotels The Shelbourne Hotel: The Merrion Hotel: The Westbury Hotel or The Dylan Hotel. Your driver-guide will ensure you check in safely and have suitable recommendations for dinner this evening. It's time to relax now, it's been a long day.

2 nights at The Shelbourne Hotel in a Double Deluxe Room inclusive of breakfast

Day 2: Dublin City: Your walking tour and time to explore

After breakfast, you'll be greeted by a local guide in the hotel lobby. We've planned a private three-hour walking tour, just for your party (tell us about any specific mobility needs or sites of interest). It's an interesting and enjoyable tour of central Dublin, touching on both history and local life. You'll see 13th century Dublin Castle, today a major government centre. In the Dublin Port area, you'll marvel at the neoclassical architecture of Custom House, originally opened in 1791. And you'll admire some of the Georgian doors of Dublin. Colourful and decorative, they've become part of Dublin's DNA. Your walking tour will conclude at Trinity College Library. It's in the heart of Dublin, down worn, cobbled lanes. And it's home to the world-famous Book of Kells. Crafted from vellum and ornately decorated, the book dates to 384AD. Historically significant, it contains the four Gospels in Latin.

During the afternoon and evening, you're free to explore the capital as you wish. Your driver-guide can help you plan your time. And if you wish to keep him (and your vehicle) we can arrange this too. There's lots to discover, including: The National Gallery, The Irish Immigration Museum, The Guinness Storehouse, and St Patrick's Cathedral. Of course, Dublin is excellent for soaking up the vibrant Irish culture and a spot of shopping too. The choice is yours.

The Book of Kells Welcome to the Old Library and the Book of Kells - a "must see" on the itinerary of all visitors to Dublin. Located in the heart of Dublin City, a walk through the cobbled stones of Trinity College Dublin will bring visitors back to the 18th century, when the magnificent Old Library building was constructed. Inside is housed the Book of Kells - a 9th-century gospel manuscript famous throughout the world.

Day 3: Dublin to Cork: Historic Land of Saints & Scholars

This morning, you'll say farewell to Dublin and head towards Cork – with much interest along the way. From the safety and comfort of your luxury vehicle, you'll get your first taste of Ireland's incredible scenery. There's plenty more to come. Your first stop will be The Rock of Cashel where entrance is included before continuing south-west for an included stop at Blarney Castle.

After an enjoyable journey, your driver-guide will take you to Kinsale Harbour, where you'll check in to Perryville House (or similar) for one night. Dating to 1820, this lovingly restored building now houses a luxurious boutique guest house. You'll enjoy a deluxe room, with every possible comfort. Relish an evening in Kinsale. It's a pretty town with a deserved reputation of being the gourmet capital of Ireland.

The Rock of Cashel is the site where St Patrick chose to make the head of his church in Ireland. The Rock of Cashel is a spectacular group of medieval buildings set on an outcrop of limestone in the Golden Vale including the 12th century round tower, High Cross and Romanesque Chapel, 13th century Gothic cathedral, 15th century Castle and the restored Hall of the Vicars Choral.

Blarney Castle Built nearly six hundred years ago by one of Ireland's greatest chieftains, Cormac MacCarthy. Over the last few hundred years, millions have flocked to Blarney making it a world-famous landmark and one of Ireland's greatest treasures. Now, that might have something to do with the Blarney Stone, the legendary Stone of Eloquence, found at the top of our tower. Kiss it and you'll never again be lost for words.

Overnight at Perryville House in a Double Deluxe Room inclusive of breakfast

Day 4: Cork to Killarney: The Wild Atlantic Way

It's on with your journey today. After breakfast, your driver-guide will first take you to the Old Head of Kinsale. No tour to the south-west can omit such a breath-taking ocean view. It's also the start of the Wild Atlantic Way - an iconic coastal route you'll keep returning to over the coming days. Today, you'll first head to the pretty village of Kenmare for a spot of lunch. You'll gaze at scenic splendour this morning. And your driver-guide knows all the best photo-stops. Such unspoilt, natural beauty - it's hard for a camera to do it justice. Make sure you capture this for your memories too.

On your approach to Killarney, you'll enjoy some stunning views from The Ring of Kerry. Don't worry, there's more to see tomorrow. You'll travel along the lakes, through Killarney National Park, eventually arriving at the popular town of Killarney. Nestled on the shores of Lough Leane, Queen Victoria stayed here in 1750. With its dramatic mountainous backdrop and immense natural beauty, you'll appreciate why it's a favoured destination for many.

You'll enjoy three nights in Killarney. Staying at The Aghadoe Heights Hotel, no less. Where warm Irish hospitality meets modern comfort. With a lakeside deluxe room, this 5-star hotel affords magical views from every corner. It's such a serene and relaxing place. Yet, just a short hotel shuttle into the heart of town. Alternatively you can choose The town centre, Killarney Park Hotel where you'll stay in a premium room. This wonderful 5-star hotel is just a few minutes walk to the pubs and restaurants on the high street.

We can recommend some ideas for dinner tonight or see what tempts you. There are characterful Irish pubs and fine restaurants to choose from in Killarney. You'll have a wonderful time.

3 nights at Aghadoe Heights Hotel in a Double Deluxe Lake View Room inclusive of breakfast

Day 5: The Ring of Kerry

The incredible scenery of the Ring of Kerry beckons you today. And your attentive driver-guide is with you all the way, ensuring you experience the best of this glorious westerly landscape. This is a circular route that forms part of The Wild Atlantic Way. And there's so many hidden gems to point out to you. First-stop is Killorglin, travelling through the sweet coastal village of Glenbeigh. Here you'll find one of the best sandy Atlantic beaches Ireland can offer. En route to Killorglin, you might opt to stop by Brendan Farris. He's an Irish border collie trainer and his sheepdog demonstrations are quite an experience!

There's so much more to see on the Ring of Kerry. We recommend Dingle Bay, with its clean, sandy beaches, towering cliffs and crashing waves. Your driver-guide knows all the best viewpoints - photographers will be in paradise here. You'll keep going and keep discovering. Cahirciveen is the birthplace of Daniel O'Connell, Ireland's Great Liberator. And Skellig Ring is a fantastic detour if time allows (some say it's more tranquil than the Ring of Kerry). This route can take you to Valentia Island. Well worth the effort. And not just to catch sight of Skellig Island - a key location for the latest Star Wars films. Still you'll discover awe-inspiring and rugged beauty as you pass thorough Sneem village and on to Molls Gap. There are staggering views of South-West Ireland from this winding mountain pass that elevates through the peaks.

Killarney National Park is now within reach and you'll return to Killarney during the afternoon (perhaps later if you enjoyed Skellig Ring too). There's more to see in Killarney, such as Muckrose House & Gardens or Torc Waterfall. Or you might just want to kick off your shoes back at the hotel.

Tonight, why don't we organise a fantastic Irish music and dance show for you? The Celtic Steps perform in Killarney and your driver-guide can arrange everything. Or maybe a quiet meal is more in order? We can arrange that too

Day 6: The Dingle Peninsula

Ireland's most westerly point, the Dingle Peninsula offers rugged scenery and astonishing views. Your driver-guide will tour you around, ensuring you see all the best vistas. Sleah Head Drive will definitely be a highlight. It's one of the top 100 destinations in the world according to TripAdvisor. And National Geographic once called it "the most beautiful place on earth". We're proud it's in Ireland!

If you're looking for a beautiful escape, this circular route is it. Starting and finishing at the attractive harbour town of Dingle, there's no shortage of sheltered sandy beaches, ancient archaeological sites and rugged landscape to admire. You'll love the sense of peace this area exudes. And it's hard not to be drawn by the clear air and captivating natural light. Fancy a barefoot walk on the sandy beach? You can try and imagine how the Neolithic settlers made this wonderful place their home, back in 4,000BC. Dingle offers plenty of choice for lunch. It might be local seafood fare or other delicious foods. And you'll be glad of your driver-guide here, given that traditional Irish is the first language. It sits firmly within one of the Gaeltacht regions. What an enchanting place to experience traditional Irish life!

Your route back to Killarney includes the Conor Pass to Tralee. Sit back and drink in the views as your driver-guide addresses the winding climbs and magnificent peaks with ease. You'll soon be back at your hotel now. And so, to your last evening in Killarney. There are many special dining locations and we can arrange one to suit you. Your driver-guide always at your service.

Day 7: The Cliffs of Moher and the Burren National Park

It's a prompt start today: we suggest 8.30am. You'll say goodbye to Killarney and head north; first to Adare. A designated Heritage Town, this pretty village dates to the 13th century. Adorned with thatched cottages and rich in history, you'll have time to take a stroll and see for yourself. When you're ready, The Cliffs of Moher await you. You're back on The Wild Atlantic Way again. Towering to an incredible 668 feet high and 5 miles long, The Cliffs of Moher are a UNESCO Global Geopark. Their sheer scale puts everything into perspective.

With uninterrupted views across the mighty Atlantic Ocean, you can wander along the cliff tops and catch sight of basking sharks and dolphins below. There are Kittiwakes and Razorbills, not to mention a myriad of wild coastal flowers to admire. Your driver-guide knows the best spots to enjoy.

If you'd like to explore the visitor centre, your entrance fee is included. Alternatively, we can arrange a coastal cruise to take in the cliffs from the water.

During the afternoon, your journey will continue into the Burren Region. Home to Burren National Park, it's a curious Geosite. You'll find a limestone landscape that was naturally formed some 300 million years ago. Look out for intriguing mushroom-like structures. You'd be forgiven for thinking they're manmade. They're not – they're all naturally shaped over millions of years

You'll also discover Neolithic monuments dating back 6,000 years. It's an area that's abundant in archaeological history. And your driver-guide has all the details for you.

Your remarkable drive continues along The Wild Atlantic Way, via Galway, arriving in Cong, County Mayo. For the next two nights, you'll stay at Ashford Castle Hotel. 5-star luxury with an incredible, 800-year history behind every door. Once home to the Guinness family, you'll certainly be impressed by the sheer decadence of this award-winning hotel.

The Cliffs of Moher is a sheer precipice that stretches for 5 miles along another part of the Wild Atlantic Way. The Cliffs of Moher rise to a height of 668 feet above the Atlantic and is one of the most impressive coastlines in Ireland. In nesting season, the cliffs are home to a variety of seabirds. Entrances to the Cliffs of Moher Visitors Centre is included. In the afternoon, there will be time to see the Burren Region a remarkable landscape of Limestone and littered with Neolithic sites dating back 6,000 years.

2 nights at Ashford Castle in a Double Corrib Lake View Room inclusive of breakfast

Day 8: Connemara and Kylemore Abbey

The striking scenery of Connemara makes it a key destination for those seeking an authentic Irish experience. Wild and unspoilt, it's a vast land of glistening lakes and far-reaching heathlands framed with mountainous backdrops (such as The Twelve Bens). Wild ponies and old stone walls add to the romance. Your heart will sing here!

Today, your trusty driver-guide will tour you round the very best of this traditional Gaeltacht (Irish-speaking) region. There's much to see and you'll choose your highlights. Tour for the entire day or opt for an afternoon to languish at Ashford Castle, amongst all its finery and facilities.

A picturesque market town awash with Atlantic Ocean air, Clifden is a welcoming place to visit. Wander around traditional streets rich in music, arts and hospitality, then head out on the sky road, for views a-plenty. This 10-mile circular driving route on the Kingstown peninsula is part of the Wild Atlantic Way. Lose yourself in the glorious coastal views and untouched, natural beauty. Stop at the highest point for astonishing vistas that you'll cherish for life.

You'll visit Kylemore Abbey and walled gardens on your tour. Entrance fees are included. Our suggested tour then takes you north via Killary Harbour – Ireland's only true Fjord – before returning to Ashford Castle along the Joyce Country Drive. Should you wish to extend your driver-guide tour today (until 5pm), you might consider Roundstone Bog; the largest natural bogland in the world. The village of Roundstone is also worthy of a visit. It was used as a location in The Matchmaker film. You'll also discover a monument here, dedicated to Alcock and Brown, following their transatlantic crossing in a Vickers Vinny aircraft in 1919.

However you choose to spend your day, you'll enjoy a second, luxurious night within the walls of 5-star Ashford Castle.

Kylemore Abbey & Victorian Walled Garden Here you will visit the restored rooms of the Abbey and learn about its history and tales of tragedy and romance. Explore the 6-acre Victorian Walled Garden with its magnificent restored buildings. Discover woodland walks, lakeshore walks, nature trails and children's play trail throughout the 1,000-acre estate. The beautiful Gothic Church is a short walk from the Abbey. Nestled nearby is the Mausoleum where Mitchell and Margaret Henry are buried side by side. Children will enjoy making a wish at the Giant's Ironing Stone. Enjoy delicious home baking and home cooked food at Mitchell's Café or The Garden Tea House and finish your visit with a spot of shopping at our lovely craft and design shop.

Day 9: An Authentic Hennigan's Heritage Experience

Travelling to Swinford, your first destination today is Hennigan's Heritage Farm. We've organised a private tour of the smallholding for you, with the owner, Tom Hennigan. Today, a historian and a poet, Tom is also a Seanchai (Gaelic for "custodian of traditions"). This was Tom's family home for 150 years (until 1990). Back then, County Mayo was badly affected by famine and hunger. Tom and his family will provide a first-hand account of life during that time. They'll show you the basic tools used on the land and talk about how the area's big houses worked.

Your day will continue north to the town of Sligo. Known for its literary heritage, you'll be able to stop and see the grave of poet, W.B. Yeats. And now, County Donegal beckons. We call it God's County. It topped the National Geographic Cool List in 2017. With good reason. You'll be off the beaten track again, surrounded by castles, rugged coastline and mountain peaks. An escape from it all – and the route to r Solis Lough Eske Castle. – home for the next two nights.

This secluded, 5-star hotel is on the edge of Donegal town. Not surprisingly, there's plenty of history to the site, with close links to the O'Donnell Clan. Today, this award-winning hotel is a place of sheer decadence in every sense. You'll remember your stay here for years to come.

The only Irish hotel to achieve a World Luxury Hotel award, Lough Eske Castle has been given the "World's Best Luxury Hotel" award for FIVE consecutive years! Further recent awards include one of Condé Nast's top three luxury hotels in Ireland; TripAdvisor Traveller's Choice Award 2014; the European "Innovation in Service" Hospitality Award 2013; highly commended for "The Best Service Award" 2013 by the Tattler Spa Awards, and Condé Nast Readers' Award 2013.

2 nights at Lough Eske Castle in a Double Deluxe Room inclusive of breakfast

Day 10: Exploring County Donegal

There's lots to discover in Donegal County today and you'll have your driver-guide to help you. Travelling via Killybegs – Ireland's largest fishing port – you'll continue along Donegal Bay to Kilcar. This is a gorgeous part of The Wild Atlantic Way. You're never far from coastal wonder in this part of the country.

You'll first stop at Slieve League. They're the highest sea cliffs in Europe at almost 2,000 feet. Standing on what could be the edge of the world, you'll feel the might of this landscape, the Atlantic Ocean swirling far below your feet. Take some time to drink in the astonishing views from such height. Feel at one with nature. When you're ready, you'll next head to Glencolmcille. It's a pretty little village, sitting firmly in a Gaeltacht (Irish speaking) area. Ask your driver-guide to teach you a few phrases on the way. You'll enjoy a memorable experience if you do.

And so, your tour of Donegal County continues. The tiny, traditional town of Adara is next. Look out for Loughros Point and its stunning views over the Atlantic Ocean. If you'd like to experience a hand-weaving demonstration, we can organise that for you today. You'll also stop at a real Irish pub for a genuine pint of the black stuff. Bushmills, if you prefer. And there's locally caught seafood when you're feeling hungry.

Returning to Solis Lough Eske Castle after a fabulous day, you'll want to relax and indulge in the many luxuries this evening.

Day 11: Donegal to Belfast via Derry

This morning, your driver-guide will take you to Derry (also known as Londonderry). The second largest city in Northern Ireland, it's completely walled with seven gates. A complex history dates back some 1,500 years, whilst the city boasts a vibrant and modern culture today. You'll experience an award-winning walking tour of Derry, learning more about the Bogside, The Bloody Sunday Story and The Peoples' Gallery. It's an insightful tour that also stops at many vantage points across the city's architecture.

Back in your luxury vehicle, you'll next travel to Belfast – a city that needs little introduction. Your driver-guide will complete a tour with you, highlighting the historic architecture and social history of Belfast. You'll also tour the political districts with your driver-guide and see murals created by both loyalist and republican communities. Learn about both sides of this troubled and testing history. Lunch in the city will showcase its lively atmosphere today. Then it's on to the Titanic Visitor Centre where we include entrance.

Later in the afternoon, you'll check in to at the Merchant Hotel. for a two-night stay. This is certainly one of Belfast's finest 5-star hotels. Located in the heart of the Cathedral Quarter, it couldn't be more convenient. A Grade A listed building with an art deco inspired wing, it's a truly remarkable building, with gorgeous décor and bespoke furnishings inside.

A Walking Tour of the Intact City Walls of Derry Today you will have your private walking tour of Derry City with an expert local guide. Doire, Derry, Londonderry has 1,500 years of history and culture enclosed within Ireland's only completely walled city. From the sixth-century monastic settlement to the vibrant European city of the twenty-first century, no visit to Ireland is complete without a visit to Derry.

Titanic Belfast We also include entrance to the Titanic museum for a self-guided tour detailing the entire Titanic story in chronological order. Titanic Belfast extends over nine interactive galleries, with multiple dimensions to the exhibition, drawing together special effects, dark rides, full-scale reconstructions and innovative interactive features to explore the Titanic story in a fresh and insightful way. Explore the shipyard, travel to the depths of the ocean and uncover the true legend of Titanic, in the city where it all began.

2 nights at The Merchant Hotel in a Double Victorian Deluxe inclusive of breakfast

Day 12: Belfast to Glens of Antrim - a full day with your Driver / Guide

Today, you'll travel north through the glorious Glens of Antrim. It's a striking landscape that covers 80 miles of rugged cliffs and nine different glens (deep valleys), each with a distinct, historical name. Some sites were used for the filming of Game of Thrones and if you'd like, your driver-guide will point them out.

Another UNESCO World Heritage Site is your next destination. The Giant's Causeway. There are over 40,000 hexagonal basalt pillars stacked vertically together. It almost looks manufactured, and yet, it was the work of a volcanic eruption - 60 million years ago. Legend would tell another story. Ask your driver-guide about the fight between two giants: Fionn mac Cumhaill and big Scot, Benandonner. There's more information at the visitor centre and their audio tour is very interesting. Make some time to admire this natural creation from many vantage points too. Many consider The Giant's Causeway to be the eighth wonder of the world. We think you'll see why.

This area of Northern Ireland is also home to the world's oldest licensed whiskey distillery at Bushmills. The town is well worth a visit and you might choose to partake in a wee dram whilst you're there. You'll also visit the cliff-top ruins of Dunluce Castle. Dating to 1513 in written records, this medieval fortification is accessible by bridge, due to the steep, rocky drops on all sides. Once your day's tour is complete, you'll head back to luxury at The Merchant Hotel for your second night in central Belfast. If you want dining or entertainment recommendations, just ask your friendly driver-guide.

Day 13: Newgrange and the Boyne Valley

This morning, you'll bid farewell to Belfast and travel south, in the company of your driver-guide. First stop is Brú na Bóinne (Boyne valley tombs) visitor centre. It's a significant UNESCO World Heritage Site on the banks of the River Boyne. You'll enjoy a guided tour of Newgrange. A 5,200-year-old passage tomb, it was built by Stone Age farmers. 85 metres (93 yards) in diameter and 13.5 metres (15 yards) high, it covers an area of almost one acre. The passage and chamber align with the rising sun at Winter Solstice. And your tour will recreate this event for you. Can you imagine how this felt in Neolithic times? It's an incredible place to experience first-hand.

When you're ready, you'll continue your journey south, arriving in Dublin again. You'll check in to the Shelbourne Hotel (or similar) for an ultimate night, ahead of your journey home. Finish your shopping or visit a final highlight in the city. Then relish a memorable last dinner together. For this trip, anyway.

Overnight at The Shelbourne Hotel in a Double Deluxe Room inclusive of breakfast

Day 14: Farewell

Has it flown by? We think so too. You've experienced an incredible two weeks in Ireland. Now you return home, richer with historical and ancestral knowledge, happy times and special memories to treasure.

We'll organise a private transfer from your hotel lobby, direct to Dublin airport. You'll check in to your flight, stress-free, and soon be on your way.

We'll miss you. And we'd love to host you again in our fair land. There's much more to see and do; so many experiences to enjoy together. Come and visit us another time soon. We'll be waiting!
